GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Candidates should note that their candidature is strictly provisional for any course.
2. The candidates must read the conditions of eligibility as given in the general instruction part carefully and must satisfy themselves regarding their eligibility before filling the application form.
3. The candidates who have appeared in the relevant qualifying examination may apply for any programme subject to the condition that they must fulfill the basic eligibility and produce all relevant documents at the time of interview/Counselling of the programme.
4. The candidates are required to read carefully the general instructions before filling-up the application form. Fill the details clearly and without ambiguity. The applications with wrong and unclear information will not be considered.
5. Fill-up separate Application Form for each Course along with fee. Once admitted, fee paid will not be refunded under any circumstances.
6. Applicants belonging to any reserved category must enclose a clean copy of the caste/ category/ disability certificate (not more than 6 months old duration) along with the online application to claim such benefit.
7. An amount taken towards programme caution money shall be deposited which will be refunded on completion of the Course after submission of No Dues Certificate.
8. Applications submitted on any other format will not be accepted.
9. Applications submitted on any other format will not be accepted.
10. In case of any dispute regarding admission, decision of the Institution will be final and binding upon the candidates.
11. An incomplete and unclear application will be rejected.
12. No candidate shall be allowed to do two regular courses at a time.
13. The maximum duration to complete the course shall be as per rules as decided by the competent authority.